LoboRESPECT Advocacy Center

According to the National Sexual Violence Resource Center, April 2022 marks the official 21st anniversary of Sexual Assault Awareness Month — but did you know we can trace its history even longer? Even before its official declaration, SAAM was about both awareness and prevention of sexual assault, harassment, and abuse. Looking at the history of the movement and sexual violence, it’s clear why it’s impossible to prevent an issue no one knows about, and it’s difficult to make people aware of a problem without providing a solution. The two work in tandem, and they always have. From the civil rights movement to the founding of the first rape crisis centers to national legislation and beyond, the roots of SAAM run deep.

LoboRESPECT is the name of UNM’s comprehensive approach to preventing and responding to sexual misconduct in our campus community. This website includes information on our prevention education efforts and programs, services and support for victims of sexual misconduct, and our policies.

The LoboRESPECT Advocacy Center opened in Fall 2015 as a part of the LoboRESPECT Initiative. The LoboRESPECT Advocacy Center provides a safe and welcoming environment that does not tolerate any form of sexual misconduct so they continue to thrive in our educational environment.

The LoboRESPECT Advocacy Center focuses on promoting student success by providing advocacy, navigation and support to students and the UNM community.

Vision: The LoboRESPECT Advocacy Center will provide a safe and welcoming environment for students to receive support and advocacy services in the aftermath of any form of crisis including, but not limited to, sexual assault, misconduct, hazing and hate/bias related incidents.

Values:

• To reduce sexual misconduct in our campus community
• To provide effective and comprehensive primary prevention programs
• To effectively respond to sexual misconduct that happens in our campus community
• To support victims of sexual misconduct so they continue to thrive in our educational environment
• To create a campus environment that does not tolerate any form of sexual misconduct

What is LoboRESPECT Advocacy Center?

The LoboRESPECT Advocacy Center focuses on providing student success by: providing advocacy, navigation and support to students and the UNM community.
