

AFROTC SPOTLIGHT

Brig. Gen. Leslie A. Maher, Commander, Jeanne M. Holm Center for Officer Accessions and Citizen Development at Maxwell Air Force Base in Alabama was recently in town to preside over a retirement ceremony at Kirtland Air Force Base. Maher is responsible for all 145 AFROTC detachments throughout the country and stopped by the UNM campus for a tour and to meet with UNM President Stokes; Interim VP for Student Affairs, Gutierrez; UNM AFROTC Commander Lt Col Beuter; ROTC cadre, and cadets. Cadets participated in a town hall with Maher and were encouraged to ask questions and engage with her.

OCT 21

WEAR PURPLE

October is Domestic Violence Awareness Month

Individuals can also participate in Purple Thursday, a national movement taking place on Oct. 21. The domestic violence awareness symbol is a purple ribbon and on this day people across the nation wear a purple shirt to raise awareness and share a post using #PurpleThursday.

CHALK CELEBRATES 20 YEARS IN CAREER SERVICES

STAFF SPOTLIGHT

Cathy Chalk, Supervisor, Admin Support, celebrated her 20 years in Career Services on October 1, 2021. She has been at UNM for 23 years - but 20 of them with us in Career Services. We are very lucky and fortunate to have her in our office and at UNM. She has been in 3 different positions within our office, each with increasing responsibility. She is a great staff member, team member and overall role model for all. Congratulations Cathy on 20 years in Career Services!
