

RECREATIONAL SERVICES

WHAT WE DO FOR STUDENTS

WHO WE ARE

The Recreational Services Department is a service-oriented program that provides recreational and wellness programs and services for the University community. The Department was founded in 1958 and currently serves approximately 25,000 enrolled students as well as University faculty and staff. A primary function of this Department is to provide for the total well-being of the University community in accordance with the University's commitment to educate the total individual and to care for the individual's needs while they attend or are employed by the University. Recreational Services is housed in Johnson Center on the UNM Main Campus. Our programs include: open recreation, intramural sports, club sports, fitness and wellness, aquatics, Outdoor Adventure and Resource Center and Lobo Bicycle Shop.

OUR MISSION

The mission of the Recreational Services Department at the University of New Mexico is to provide a wide variety of opportunities to enhance the recreational, educational and social experiences for a diverse University community. The Department is committed to excellence by offering programs that promote wellness, physical activity and a healthy lifestyle while contributing to the intellectual and cultural development of those we serve.

HOW WE IMPACT STUDENTS

Recreational Services is committed to being recognized by the University as an outstanding advocate for fitness and wellness and the leader in offering recreational and leisure activities on campus. We will develop and continue to improve a comprehensive recreation program that supports student learning and life long participation in fitness and wellness. We value student development, collaboration and professionalism. Recreational Services supports the University's mission by contributing to student success. This is accomplished by giving students opportunities to engage in and create peer groups, maintain and improve physical fitness and wellness, explore and attain new skills and merge academic and recreational experiences into practical application.
