

CRABB APPOINTED INTERIM VP FOR STUDENT AFFAIRS

The Division of Student Affairs is pleased to announce the appointment of Dr. Jenna Crabb as the interim Vice President for Student Affairs. Jenna has been with the University of New Mexico in various capacities since 1996. She currently serves as the Director for UNM Career Services, a position that she's held since 2006. She is a Lobo through and through as a 3-time degree recipient from UNM, earning her Bachelor of Arts degree in English and Criminology; a Master of Arts in Counseling and a Ph.D. in Counselor Education. Jenna is a Nationally Certified Counselor (NCC), a Global Career Development Facilitator and instructor (GCDF) and a licensed Professional Mental Health Counselor for NM (LPC). She also serves as adjunct faculty/instructor for the Counselor Education program here at UNM. Her UNM career started as a student employee in Residence Life. After her undergraduate degrees, she left UNM for a short time period only to realize how much she missed the energy of campus life. She quickly returned to Residence Life as an Area Coordinator and started her professional journey within Student Affairs. She moved to Career Services after obtaining her Master's degree in Counseling in 2002.

Jenna will officially take over the helm for the Division on an interim basis on Friday, July 1 and will stay on board to help ensure a smooth transition to the new vice president, Dr. Eric Scott, whose tenure begins on August 1. Filling an interim role is not new for Jenna. She previously served as the interim director for Residence Life and Student Housing and the Dean of Students Office. "I'm looking forward to helping out our division in any way needed. I am also very excited about getting us ready for a great hand-off to our new VP, Dr. Eric Scott," Crabb says. Please help us congratulate Jenna on her new appointment!

MESSAGE FROM THE INTERIM VP

Hi everyone!

As you are aware, Dr. Tim Gutierrez is leaving his interim role as Vice President for Student Affairs and retiring after many years of honorable service to the University of New Mexico. The Provost announced the appointment of the new Student Affairs Vice President, Dr. Eric Scott, who will begin his tenure at UNM on August 1. In the meantime, I am pleased and humbled to be appointed as the new interim Vice President for Student Affairs for the month of July to help ensure a smooth transition for Dr. Scott into his new position. I have been a part of Student Affairs for the past 26 years and have worked in various capacities throughout my UNM career.

Dr. Gutierrez has set an extremely high bar with regard to his dedication to our students, staff, faculty and the overall campus community. I'm excited to continue and build on the work that Dr. Gutierrez has implemented and plan to fill my time as interim VP in the most meaningful and effective way for our community. I am looking forward to working with you in my new role, enthusiastic about the future, and ready to see where our great Division goes from here. Thank you all for your support throughout the years!

-Jenna

PROGRAM SPOTLIGHT

On August 16, 2019, the New Student Orientation (NSO) team was wrapping up another successful summer of orientation and looking forward to a well-deserved break. At that moment no one could have ever imagined that the next time NSO would return to campus for an in-person summer orientation would be nearly 3 years later! After a 1,025 day hiatus, New Student Orientation is back in-person (for the most part)!

During Summer 2022, incoming First-Year and Transfer Students have the option to participate in an In-Person or a To-Go (virtual) orientation. In each modality, students will participate in presentations, interact with their peers, engage with various campus partners, and register for their Summer or Fall 2022 courses. Summer orientations are currently underway but there are plenty more sessions that are hosted over the next two months! Click here to review the upcoming orientation dates and reserve your spot today! Looking for ways for your department to get involved with New Student Orientation? Visit the NSO Campus Partners webpage to sign up to participate in Discover UNM! (tabling event) or to request to pick up an NSO Shirt!

NSO By the Numbers

Although there is still a lot of time before the start of the Fall semester, it appears that students are showing a lot of interest in UNM! Each week NSO creates a Comparison Report that provides a snapshot of year-to-year reservations trends. At the moment, NSO reservations are looking good and UNM is expecting another increase in First-Year enrollment - continuing the trend of the past 3 years!

STAFF SPOTLIGHT

Sara Wortman Joins Career Services Team

Career Services recently welcomed Sara Wortman to our staff. Sara is a new CDF. She is currently completing her MA in Counseling at UNM. We are excited to have her on our team!

UPCOMING EVENTS

Traditional Health Fair

Wednesday, June 22, 2022
12:30 to 4 p.m.
UNM Main Campus
(north area of Zimmerman Library near the duck pond)

sponsored by the Women's Resource Center