

Message from the VP

Dear Student Affairs Colleagues,

It's hard to believe, but at the end of this week will already be a quarter of the way through the fall semester. Our year has gotten off to a wonderful start with an outstanding welcome to the largest first-year class in UNM history. I hope spoken to many of you across the division and am pleased to hear reports of an engaged student population ready to positively contribute to sustaining a vibrant campus community. One new addition to help our students maintain that engagement and tend to their own wellbeing is the introduction of TimelyCare, a virtual health and well-being platform available to all UNM students including online and branch campus students. Please aid me in ensuring that students know that this resource is available to them as a supplement to the outstanding care and programming available through SHAC. Next week our division will gather for our fall all staff gathering. If you have not already, please accept the calendar invite to indicate your attendance so that we may plan accordingly. This gathering is an opportunity to stay up to date with major developments in the division and most importantly connect with colleagues to strengthen the synergy of our work together supporting students. I look forward to seeing you there and in the meantime, I hope that everyone enjoys the extra boost of school spirit this weekend as we welcome NMSU to town. Go Lobos!

With appreciation, Eric

TimelyCare Available for UNM Students

UNM students have FREE, 24/7 access to virtual care services with TimelyCare — a virtual health and well-being platform designed for college students. Students do not need insurance to access TimelyCare services. As part of The University of New Mexico’s partnership with TimelyCare, students have access to services in TimelyCare, including:

- MedicalNow: On-demand support for common health issues, including cold, flu, and allergies.
  - TalkNow: 24/7, on-demand emotional support to talk about anything, including anxiety, relationships, depression, and school-related stressors.
  - Scheduled Medical: Choose the day, time, and medical provider that best works for you.
  - Scheduled Counseling: Choose the day, time, and mental health provider that best works for you. (12 visits per year)
  - Health Coaching: Develop healthy lifestyle behaviors, including nutrition, sleep habits, time management, and mindfulness.
  - Psychiatry: Appointments are available through referrals.
  - Self-Care Content: Visit the “Explore” page within TimelyCare for guided self-care content, including yoga and meditation sessions, as well as group conversations with our providers on a variety of health and well-being topics.
  - Basic Needs Support: Access to low or reduced-cost community resources, including food and housing assistance, transit support, childcare, and finances.

Students have access to TimelyCare services 365 days a year. That means you have access during breaks, after-hours, and any time you need support! Visit the UNM TimelyCare website to enroll.

National Online Learning Day

September 15 is National Online Learning Day!

Are you an online student?

We want to hear from you!
Tell us how online learning has benefitted you in a short video we'll share on socials!

Email us at online@unm.edu

online.unm.edu

September 15 is National Online Learning Day and UNM Online is looking for short-form videos from students to include on our social media pages for the event. We'll be taking over the official UNM accounts to promote the prevalence and importance of online learning to the UNM community. If you know of any students passionate about online learning, please consider having them email us a video with the following parameters:

- Due September 14, emailed to online@unm.edu

- The video should be under one minute in length

- Portrait or vertical preferred, although if you'd like to record one using your computer that's great, too!
- A brief introduction, with your name, program, and whether you're a UNM staff and student
- Suggested topics:
  - Online learning tips
  - How online education benefitted you
  - Why you love online learning
  - Success stories
