

Brent Freeman Biography

Brent Freeman is a seasoned higher education administrator with a wealth of experience in facility management, operations, and leadership. With over two decades of dedication to the field, Brent has established himself as a strategic leader committed to enhancing the student experience and fostering inclusive communities at the institutions he has served.

Brent's educational journey includes earning a Master of Business Administration in Human Resource Development from Pittsburg State University, a Master of Arts in Educational Administration – Higher Education Administration from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln, and a Bachelor of Arts in Sport Management from Washington State University.

As the Director of Nebraska Unions, Events, and Services at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln, Brent provides visionary leadership, overseeing all aspects of operations, budgeting, and management for the Nebraska Unions. His responsibilities include strategic planning, team development, and collaboration with various university departments to promote community engagement and student success.

Previously, Brent held leadership roles at the University of Colorado Boulder, the University of Nevada, Las Vegas, and Washington State University where he demonstrated his ability to lead diverse teams, manage complex budgets, and execute strategic initiatives to enhance campus facilities and services.

Throughout his career, Brent has been actively involved in the Association of College Unions International (ACUI) and received the ACUI Excellence in Volunteer Service Award in 2021 and the ACUI Region V Inspiring Vision Award in 2015, recognizing his outstanding contributions to the organization.

With a strong commitment to excellence, integrity, and innovation, Brent Freeman continues to make significant contributions to the field of higher education administration, leaving a lasting impact on students, faculty, and staff alike. His leadership and dedication serve as a guiding force in creating vibrant and inclusive campus communities where all individuals can thrive and succeed.