WHO WE ARE
The Naval Reserve Officers Training Corps (NROTC) is a scholarship based commissioning program. Individuals in the program (midshipman) receive full tuition scholarships and are commissioned as officers in either the United States Navy or United States Marine Corps.

NAVAL ROTC MISSION
To develop future officers mentally, morally, and physically, and to instill in them the highest ideals of duty, loyalty, and the core values of Honor, Courage, and Commitment in order to commission college graduates as Naval officers who possess a basic professional background, are motivated toward careers in the Naval Service, and have a potential for future development in mind and character so as to assume the highest responsibilities of command, citizenship, and government.

PROGRAMS, SERVICES & INITIATIVES
Provides a means for UNM students to earn a commission as an officer in the Navy or Marine Corps. Develops individuals morally, academically, and physically to be leaders in the Navy, Marine Corps, and society, teaching the values of honor courage, commitment, and life-long learning.
