

ACCESSIBILITY RESOURCE CENTER

WHAT WE DO FOR STUDENTS

WHO WE ARE

Accessibility Resource Center (ARC) coordinates and provides reasonable accommodations to qualify students with disabilities. Accommodations are individualized to address specific functional limitations resulting from a disability. There must be a logical link between the functional limitation and the accommodation. The director and program specialists rely heavily on documentation of the disability when determining accommodations. The student also participates in a discussion of accommodations and possible strategies. Accommodations not requested by students will not be provided.

ARC MISSION

Accessibility Resource Center (ARC) recognizes individuals with disabilities as an integral part of a diverse community and is committed to the provision of comprehensive resources to the University community (faculty, staff, and student) in order to create equitable, inclusive, and practical learning environments.

HOW WE IMPACT STUDENTS

ARC offers services to the University of New Mexico (UNM) self-identified students with disabilities. This includes students with visual, hearing, learning, mobility disabilities, and chronic conditions. The primary duty is to help all students with disabilities gain equal opportunities throughout the campus community, with emphasis on education. Faculty and academic support staff should refer students when they have disclosed pertinent information regarding a specific disability to ARC.
