

WHO WE ARE

UNM Career Services assists students, faculty, staff, alumni and community members with their career development needs. Our organizational structure consists of 1) career development facilitators, 2) employer relations, and 3) administration. Our career development facilitators help individuals develop, evaluate and implement career and educational decisions. They assist individuals with career decision making including figuring out a career path and major, internships and job search, occupational resumes/CVs, cover letter and graduate school decisions. Our employer relations team is our touch point for our employer partners. They outreach to employers through participation in career fairs, on-campus recruiting, Handshake (our online job and internship database), involvement in economic and community organizations and much more.

CAREER SERVICES MISSION

UNM Career Services must support the mission, academic programs, and advancement of the University of New Mexico. Within this context, the primary purpose of the Career Services is to assist students, faculty, staff and alumni in developing, evaluating, and/or implementing career, education, and employment decisions.
